Critique: The Cairn Terrier Club Championship Show 2015

In the past I found heads to be a problem with fine muzzles coming into the Breed, glad to say this was not so today, I thought most heads and expressions were good.

A few exhibits lack depth in chest, I found coats on the whole harsh and of good texture although one or two had a softer coat than I would expect on a Cairn. Movement was fine in most exhibits.

Dog CC and BOB Shaw's CH. HONEYHALL HEADBOY

A quality Champion shown in good coat and condition, nice dog to go over on the table, strong masculine head with good expression, good stop, correct bite and large teeth, good front, enough neck going into correct shoulders, level top line, which he kept on the move, good bone and muscular rear quarters, moved well round the ring, has a balanced outline when standing, pleased to award him the CC and BOB

Res Dog CC Catto's CH. BIRSELAW THE THRILL OF IT ALL

Nothing I can add to my critique that has not already been said about this well known Champion, he has everything you would want in a Cairn, typical head and expression, which we have come to expect from this kennel, shown in full coat of correct texture he has balance, good bone, spring of rib, muscular thighs, which enables him to move with ease round the ring. Unfortunately today he had other things on his mind after getting the scent of a bitch in season. Res CC A worthy Champion

Bitch CC Bateman & Inett CARRADINE IN LOVE WITH AMY

This bitch has a beautiful head with dark points that enhances her very feminine expression, a favourite of mine, I gave her Best Puppy in Breed when I last judged, pleased to see she has matured into a lovely bitch, she is sound and has good bone, correct mouth, neck and shoulders, a level top line, which is held on the move, well muscled quarters, shown in good coat and condition. I was pleased to award her the CC. her 3rd I was told, well done. A quality bitch.

Res Bitch CC Pett's DOONRAE LEXICON OF LOVE

A lot to like about this bitch, correct head proportions that give her that attractive feminine expression, she has a lovely outline when standing and strong hindquarters, which enable her to move with ease keeping her top line as she goes, she has a good mouth with correct bite, nice front, neck and shoulders, good coat and condition, pleased to award her the Res CC, a nice bitch.
